NC DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Division of Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

The list of Sign Language Studies and Interpreter Education Programs are for informational purposes only. The NC Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DSDHH) does not endorse any particular program. Inclusion in this directory only verifies that a program is offered.

DSDHH offers basic ASL instructions either virtually or in-person depending on the nature of the request. Free, statewide, virtual, basic ASL courses are offered throughout the year.

To be informed of upcoming classes, please subscribe to the DSDHH monthly Events Calendar.

To inquire about a special class for small groups/special interest, please contact your local Regional Center Deaf Services Specialist.

Community Colleges (continuing education), community services, public and private sectors, other non-credit classes are usually offered in the evenings. Community colleges/universities usually offer Sign Language Studies courses with credits. In the list on the following pages, each location's offering is signified by an X (Sign Language Studies), and I (Interpreter Education Program), or a P (Private Classes).
