February 5–6, 2002, New Hanover County DSS, Wilmington
April 22–23, 2002, Ramada Plaza, Asheville

Description

This is a two-day foundation course in aging for health and human services professionals from diverse settings. It is designed to provide basic information and skills needed to work effectively with older adults and their families. The training is divided into four modules: Aging Processes, Group and Individual Differences, Changes and Losses, and Practice Challenges. Training methods include lecturates, large and small group discussions, skills practice, work with case studies, and opportunities for discussion among participants about topics such as practice challenges, ethics and values, and end-of-life issues.

Audience

Health and human services professionals who want a basic knowledge of aging as it relates to working with older adults and their families.

Sponsors

The Adult Services Branch of the North Carolina Division of Social Services and the Center for Aging Research and Educational Services (CARES), part of the Jordan Institute for Families at UNC–Chapel Hill School of Social Work, sponsor this event.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the NC Division of Social Services are committed to equality of educational opportunity and do not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.

Registration and Tuition

Enrollment is limited to 40 people. The deadline for registration is ten working days before the first day of the event. The fee is $40.00, which includes the cost of instruction, program materials, and two breaks each day. Check-in for the workshop is from 8:30 to 9:00 on the first day. Instruction begins at 9:00 and ends at 4:00 each day. Participants are responsible for their own lunches.

Registration forms must be accompanied by a check or an agency payment approval form to be accepted. Please make checks payable to UNC–Chapel Hill School of Social Work. We cannot accept cash payments. If your agency is paying, you may register by fax, (919) 962-3653, if you include a copy of the agency payment approval form. Registrants will receive a confirmation letter. For agencies paying for several participants with one check, please indicate the participants' names and events for which they have registered.

Full refunds will be made for cancellations on or before the registration deadline. No refund will be made after that date, but you may send a substitute or transfer your registration to a future offering of this curriculum. Substitutes must fill out a registration form. Please note: If you register using an agency approval form, do not attend, and do not cancel, you or your agency will be billed for the full amount of the registration fee.

Participants who attend all days of training will receive a certificate, signed by the Director of the Division of Social Services, listing their name and the number of contact hours earned.

Further Information

For information about registration issues—to cancel, register a substitute, or inquire about cancellation owing to inclement weather—please contact Libby Phillips at CARES, Jordan Institute for Families, School of Social Work, UNC–Chapel Hill, 27599-3550 or telephone (919) 962-0650. If you need any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to attend this program, please contact Ms. Phillips as early as possible and at least 3 weeks before the program. Every effort will be made to accommodate your needs.

For information about the content of the workshop, contact Robin Gault-Winton at the CARES address or telephone (919) 843-7582.

Ongoing Professional Training from CARES, 2001–2002

Please send one registration form per participant. Each participant may register for more than one event using this form. Be sure to mark the dates for which you wish to register. The last day to cancel registration for any event and receive a refund of the fee is the registration deadline date for that event (shown in parentheses). If your agency is paying the registration fee, you may fax this form with a copy of the agency authorization of payment to CARES at (919) 962-3653. Otherwise, please mail this form to us with your check made out to UNC School of Social Work or a copy of your agency authorization. Cash payments cannot be accepted. The address is: Center for Aging Research and Educational Services, Jordan Institute for Families, School of Social Work, CB#3550, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3550.
