May 30, 2018

Dear County Director of Social Services

Attention: Food and Nutrition Services, Administrators, Managers and Supervisors

Subject: (Time Sensitive) Disaster Food and Nutrition Services Training

The Division will conduct a live Disaster Food and Nutrition Services (DFNS) training via webinar on June 11, 2018 from 10am-12pm. This training will prepare counties for responding to disasters. Counties are strongly encouraged to attend this training that will assist in developing disaster plans that will serve the residents of their county effectively and efficiently.

The training will provide general DFNS information, discuss the different types of waivers, eligibility criteria, fraud prevention and much more. It is a best practice that county staff review this training annually.

Registration for the webinar can be completed by accessing the link below:
