

Your Vision. Your Path. Your Life.

N.C. Independent Living Rehabilitation Program

Your Vision

You have a disability. How do you envision your life? Do you want to live independently or increase your independence in your home and your community?

The North Carolina Independent Living Rehabilitation Program (ILRP) may be able to help. The ILRP staff is committed to helping you define your vision and choose your path toward an independent life.

Your Path

Your path toward greater independence begins with you. Our staff will partner with you to develop your goals and identify your path. Assistance may include:

- Moving from a nursing home or an assisted-living facility to the community
- Modifying your home or vehicle to meet your individual needs
- Accessible housing information and referrals
- Purchase of medical equipment and assistive devices
- Guidance and counseling
- Developing your employment goals
- Personal assistance services

Your Life

Our staff is dedicated to maximizing the independence of North Carolinians living with disabilities. We will support you in managing your life and becoming more independent in your home and in the life of your family and community.

You may be eligible for ILRP services if you have a disability and our services can improve your independence. If you are determined eligible, the provision of services will take into consideration your financial resources.

Take the First Step

If you believe you are eligible for services, a staff member will be happy to speak with you. Please contact your local office for more information.
