

Job 10: Administrative Specialist 1: Division of Public Health - Epidemiology Section

Job Responsibilities and Deliverables

Intern will work with DHHS and/or Division of Public Health/Public Health Preparedness and Response Branch that monitors and strengthens the abilities of the public health and healthcare systems to protect the public health in disaster situations such as disease epidemics, chemical and radiological releases, severe weather, and natural disasters. Specific activities will vary based upon the interests of the intern, but will likely include conducting research, drafting products, and attending and reporting back on relevant meetings and events.

Management Preference

Student enrolled in public health, biological or environmental sciences, or pharmacy programs at a Historically Black College or University (HBCU) or Minority Serving Institution (MSI) located in North Carolina.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Ability to work 20 hybrid hours Monday – Friday between the hours of 8 am and 5 pm.
- Ability to effectively engage and interact with a broad and robust population of internal professionals, and external partners.
- Ability to compile, assimilate, and organize both printed and electronic information, including slide deck, and other meeting and presentation materials.
- Knowledge of data collection, storage, organization, manipulation, and/or analysis of data and apply that knowledge in creating reports, charts, and other materials.
- Knowledge of Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Centers of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).
- Knowledge of public health, epidemiology, and emergency management principles.
- Ability to utilize office equipment and other relevant technology.
- Ability to present ideas clearly and effectively in written and verbal form, along with the use of grammar, organization, and structure.
- Ability to adjust language or terminology to meet the needs of the audience.

Minimum Education and Experience

High School diploma or General Educational Development (GED) diploma and two years of related experience; or equivalent combination of education and experience.