RALEIGH — The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services is seeking public comment on the proposed Social Services Block Grant Plan, which outlines how $76 million in federal Social Services Block Grant funds will be spent in North Carolina for the 2024-2025 state fiscal year. The Social Services Block Grant is the major source of federal funding for several programs, including adoption, counseling, adult day care and foster care, protective services for adults, housing, and residential treatment. Other uses may include childcare for individuals involved in child welfare cases, community-based services for adults who are elderly and/or have a disability, mental health services, transportation, and other human services programs. The written plan will be available for review online at the following websites:

- Online at <https://www.ncdhhs.gov/divisions/social-services/public-notice>
- Online at each county department of social services website

Comments on the report must be submitted in writing no later than Monday, December 2, 2024, by one of the following methods:
